

The monograph presents historical and theoretical study of emergence, formation and development of existential sociology as a paradigm. The main categories, concepts, directions, theories, and the representatives of existential sociology are characterized. Author generalized the intellectual heritage and the latest achievements of existential paradigm, displayed its integrated potential in the broader context of sociological science, and outlined the perspectives for the further studies, particularly in the context of contemporary Ukrainian society.

Andrey Melnikov

Existential Sociology: Toward an Integrated Paradigm. Kiev (Ukraine): Millenium, 2018. 376 p.

Language: Russian

ISBN 978-966-8063-81-8

© Andrey Melnikov, 2018

CONTENT

INTRODUCTION	5
1. PREMISES OF EXISTENTIAL SOCIOLOGY AND DEVELOPMENT OF SCIENTIFIC PARADIGMS.....	17
1.1. Meta-paradigmatic structure of general sociological theory	17
1.2. Philosophical preconditions of existential sociology and crisis of classic epistemology	35
1.2. Intradisciplinary foundations of existential sociology	48
2. EXISTENTIAL SOCIOLOGY OF EDWARD TIRYAKIAN	68
2.1. Synthesis of sociologism and existentialism	68
2.2. Subjective realism and general theory of social existence.....	80
2.3. Existential models of self and social structure.....	86
2.4. Expansion of phenomenological method.....	94
2.5. Existential interpretation of social change and modernization.....	99

3. CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF EXISTENTIAL SOCIOLOGY.....	105
3.1. Jack Douglas and formation of research program of California school	105
3.2. Existential sociology of emotions of John M. Johnson.....	129
3.3. Theory of existential self of Joseph A. Kotarba	139
3.4. Existential sociology of Andrea Fontana	150
3.5. Conceptualization of existential sociology (Peter Manning).....	160
3.6. Sociology of Absurd of Stanford Lyman and Marvin Scott.....	167
3.7. California school and American microsociology	176
4. CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS OF EXISTENTIAL PARADIGM	186
4.1. Five postulates of existential sociology of Marcel Bolle de Bal	186
4.2. Existential sociology of Kurt Wolff	192
4.3. Society as active transcendence (Michael Weinstein)	198
4.4. Existential sociology of Jean-Paul Sartre (Gila Hayim)	204
4.5. Critical analysis of existential sociology (Robert Bogard)	215
4.6. Existential parameters of late modernity (Anthony Giddens)	222
4.7. Sociology of social existence of Piotr Sztompka	231
4.8. Existential theory of globalization of Heinz Bude and Jörg Dürschmidt.....	237
4.9. Trans-subjective existentialism of Dimitri Ginev	243
5. THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS OF EXISTENTIAL SOCIOLOGY AS INTEGRATED PARADIGM	253
5.1. Social existence	253
5.2. Problem field and categories of existential paradigm	264
5.2.1. Social authenticity	264
5.2.2. Meanings of coexistence and existential values	271
5.2.3. Negative social experience	277
5.2.4. Freedom, choice and responsibility	291
5.3. Perspectives for existential analysis of Ukrainian society	303
CONCLUSION	327
REFERENCES	341